We talked - I'm out Thursday (last week's C/D) and Friday (last day for TOATN leave).

I don't mind bumping one or both days to next week, if necessary.

Hey everyone,

We've been charging pretty hard on the Gold King Mine response. As you may know Tim Davis has been doing the posting to the site after 5pm Eastern.

He's going out of town this Thursday through Sunday, while I'm not sure if we'll have any weekend posts of data, it's possible. Could any of you all lend a hand at least on those days? We sure would appreciate it.

And, if you want to get more involved, like doing it more regularly, that'd be great too.
